Attachment B

OUTREACH ACTIVITIES

Attachment B contains a list and brief description of menu option activities undertaken pursuant to the FCC's EEO rules during the time periods covered by this report. The stations have engaged in the following outreach activities:

Radio Station Group Tours

We routinely give group tours of our facility at 2551 Park Center Blvd., State College, to organizations such as Boy and Girl Scouts, elementary and high school groups, church groups, daycares and other similar groups. The tours provide an introduction to the Radio Broadcasting Industry and are offered for free. A typical tour includes information on the history of Radio and our stations. We explain and demonstrate the broadcasting equipment used to transmit programming from the studio to the transmitter site, we explain the studio equipment and how it functions. An introduction and hands on recording of commercial production is demonstrated. An explanation of all positions and responsibility of station personnel is also given. We discuss our station formats, audience and coverage area. The tours are given by station management in programming and sales and our production / programming team. The tours are tailored to meet the goals of the specific groups.

We gave a tour to children and families involved with the Centre County Youth Service Borough on 11/22/17. The tour was requested by Christine Bishop and Andrea Fisher. The tour was given by Scott Cohagan, General Manager, and Chris Prospero, Operations Director & On-Air Personality.

To request a tour, contact:
Forever Media
2551 Park Center Blvd.
State College, PA 16801
Attention: General Manager
Phone: 814-237-9800

FOREVER MEDIA INTERNSHIP PROGRAM:

Forever Media Radio helps prepare students to take their place in society as active, critical and engaged media professionals. We provide internship opportunities to students every year. We work to design a program that allows students to earn college credit for hands on experience at the radio station. The Internships are designed to meet the needs of the radio station and academic requirements of the college or university where the student is enrolled. Each internship is uniquely designed to help prepare students to take their place in society as active, critical and engaged media professionals. Students may work with the News Director, Program Director, Business Manager, Chief Engineer, Sales Manager or the General Manager to fulfill their Internship. For this period, we had internships as per the following:

No interns this period.

- Promotional interns. They helped develop, plan, implement, and recap ways to market and promote the station group. They attend Live Action Broadcasts for the radio network and help promote the event.

Participation in Educational Events

On June 22, 2017 Scott Cohagan, General Manager and Bob Taylor Chief Engineer and Program Director of WRSC and WQWK participated in the Penn State Football Career Night. This event helped current student athlete's converse with professionals from different areas in the job market. The event helped to prepare student athletes to do the right things now for when the playing on the field ends. Scott and Bob were able to speak with many student athletes about career opportunities in Media and the Radio Broadcasting industry and how they can best prepare for those careers.

On July 14, 2017, Scott Cohagan, General Manager, was a guest faculty instructor at the Confer Radio Talent Institute on the Bloomsburg University campus. A significant part of the Institute are sessions that include RAB sales sessions so the students have the opportunity to be certified as Radio Marketing Professionals by the RAB . There are 17 internet modules in total that the students watch but the sessions that include those modules are led by radio professionals. In the session, Scott presented RAB Training Module #17 "Goal Setting and Time management." A major part of the concept of the Radio Talent Institute, radio professionals sharing with these students/future broadcasters what you think they need to know. All the sessions of the ten day Institute are taught by broadcasters.

On November 13, 2017, Christopher Forshey, Creative Service Director, was a guest speaker for Penn State Altoona COMM 260 News Writing and Reporting Class. Christopher was invited by Instructor James Albanese - Instructor in the Communications Department, Division of Arts & Humanities. He addressed the topics of the broadcasting and news industry, issues of "fake news" and journalistic credibility and strategies for students who might consider a career in the news industry.

On October 4, 2017, Scott Cohagan, General Manager met with Lauren Smith, a Penn State University senior to discuss Radio Broadcasting, Broadcast Journalism and how to be successful in the industry.

Establishment of Training Programs for Station Personnel

The Station's Account Executives have been routinely training on-line with the Radio Advertising Bureau. These are education/instructional courses designed to improve our sales team.

Account Executives are provided with daily group sales meetings to further their understanding of sales, communication, marketing trends/opportunities and sales information. These morning meetings are usually led by the General Sales Manager or General Manager. When individual training is required, the Account Executives are assisted by the General Sales Manager and/or the General Manager.

Forever Media makes available Matrix Solutions to the Sales Department. Matrix offers a web-based media-specific software platform that enables the sales department to maximize their advertising opportunities. The program provides media sales workflow while giving the exact information needed for prospecting, managing, evaluating, and closing business. Training tools for all aspects of sales are provided and available within this program.

Forever Media incorporates an additional level of employee training with the ThinkZoom-P1Learning program. P1Learning provides on-line training and operations development solutions focused exclusively on the media industry. P1 provides selling techniques and concepts, tips, training, development leadership advice and legal compliance requirements to salespersons, human resources, supervisors and management. All Forever Media employees have access to hundreds of interactive courses, tests and written materials on a variety of topics relevant to the industry.

Forever Media General Managers schedule weekly, daily and individual meetings with Sales Account Executives to review, guide and train in order to help each succeed in their career. Additionally, every Tuesday morning, the Vice-President of Sales conducts a telephone-conferenced webinar to mentor all Forever Media station General Managers, General Sales Managers, Market Managers through a process of informal discussion of knowledge, education, coaching and support as it relates to work, career, or professional development.

Upon each new hire and annually, every Forever Media employee is mandated to review policies and procedures for unlawful harassment including sexual harassment. After attending training sessions, each employee signs-off indicating their understanding of what encompasses harassment and the appropriate action to take in the event of an occurrence. Diane Fetty, CHRD.

The General Sales Manager has been routinely training on-line with the Radio Advertising Bureau. Education/instructional courses are designed to improve Management, daily operations and leadership of the sales team as well as introduce new accreditations.

The General Sales Manager has been routinely training on-line with the Pennsylvania Associations of Broadcasters (The Local Broadcast Sales Team & P1 Selling). Education/instructional courses are designed to improve management, daily operations and leadership of the sales team.
